LYSISTRATA

Lysistrata of Aristophanes - a version by Dudley Fitts

First produced in 411 B.C. at a time when Athens and Sparta had been at war for two decades, this comedy has the reputation of being the first anti-war play, and of being a powerful anti feminist tract.

To some extent it is both of these things but it is also funny. After 2400 years its bawdy humour is a reminder that relations between men and women have always been a subject for mirth will, no doubt, continue to be so for the next 2400 years,
