The Sea

Eerie, sad and hilariously funny by turns, The Sea is a comedy set in an East Coast village in 1907.

The action centres around a tragic accident at sea and the repercussions both emotional and parochial that it has on the tight inward-looking village community.

Full of a wry compassion for humanity and a dogged faith in its survival, The Sea is unlike Bond's earlier plays in many ways. But like all of them, it bears the unmistakable stamp of a highly original imagination.
