A Voyage Round My Father

'In John Mortimer's funny, subtle, touching, portrait it is his Father's enigmatic endurance which concerns him - and enriches us'. W.J. Lambert, Sunday Times.

This brilliant autobiographical play takes us through the years, from the mid-1930's up to the late 1950's, on a humorous, yet poignant voyage of discovery not only around his Father, but around Mortimer himself.

By the end of our voyage, John Mortimer has made us freshly aware of the irrepressible persistence of human nature.
