

PROSCENIUM

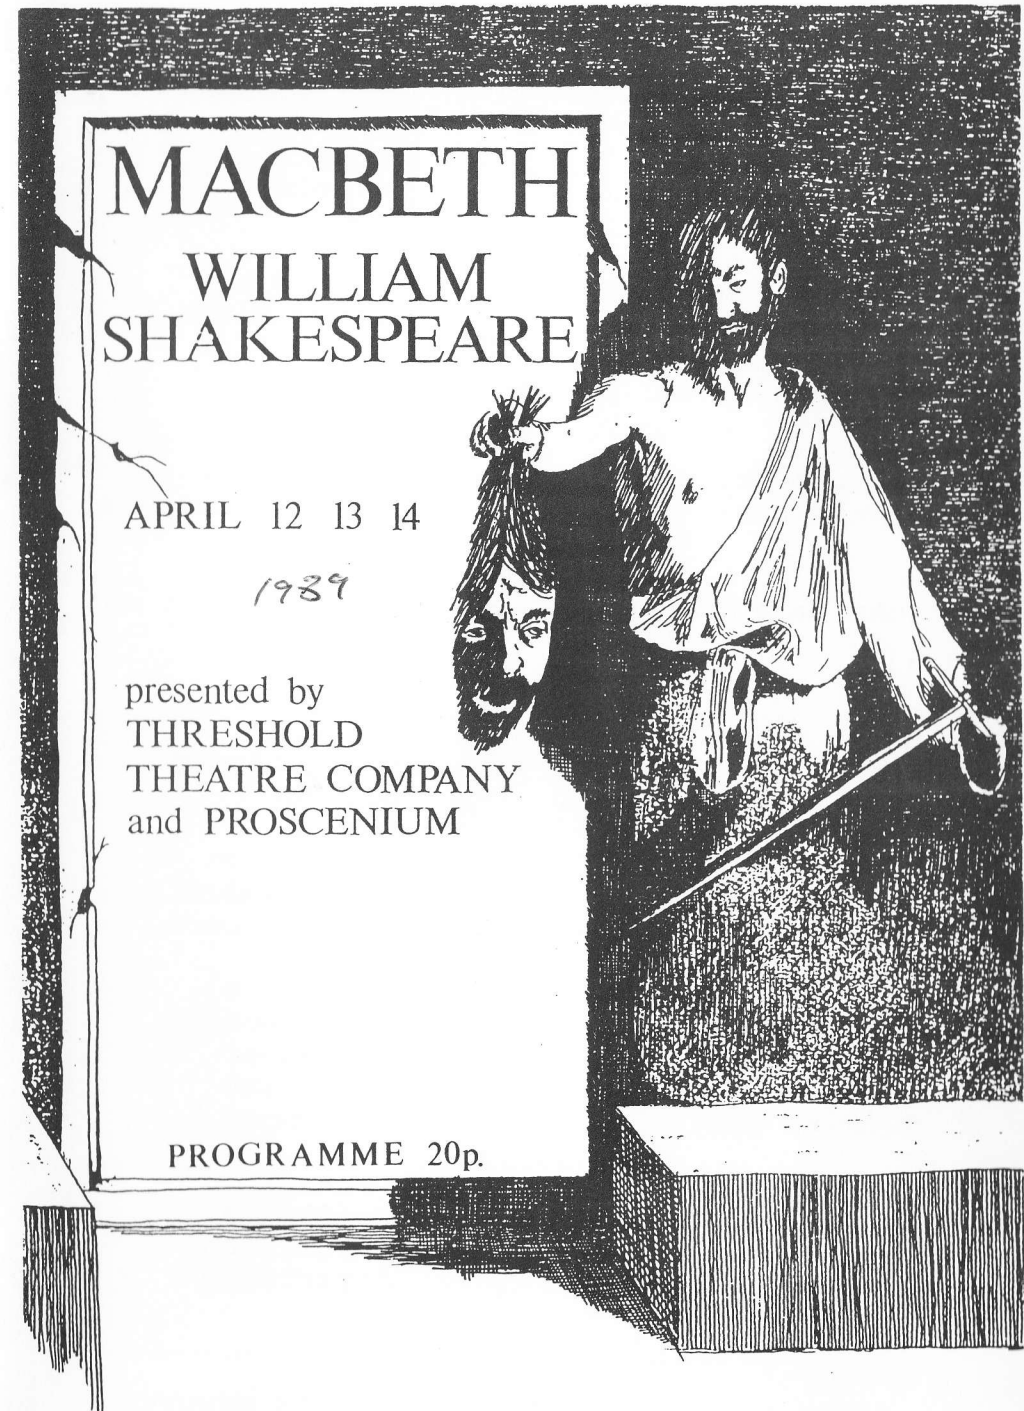

Next Production - "Tales From Hollywood" by Christopher Hampton, on 8, 9 & 10 June.
Box Office - 427-6402.

In the late 'thirties, an astonishing group of intellectuals fled a troubled Europe for the safer climes of the New World - Los Angeles in particular. Christopher Hampton's play, both sad and witty, evokes this era, and the great culture clash it enveloped ... when Schoenberg played tennis with the Marx brothers, and Johnny Weissmuller brought Tarzan to tea with Thomas Mann. It's about Hollywood's warm acceptance of this refugee talent, and its total inability to know what to do with it ...
