

PROSCENIUM

OEDIPUS REX AND OEDIPUS AT COLONUS

BY SOPHOCLES (TRANSLATED BY CHRISTOPHER STACE)

AT THE COMPASS THEATRE, GLEBE AVENUE, ICKENHAM,
MIDDLESEX. 20TH;21ST;22ND & 23RD MARCH AT 7.45 PM
TICKETS £6 AND £4 (CONCESSIONS). PROSCENIUM BOX
OFFICE 0181 9547169.COMPASS BOX OFFICE 01895 673200

PROSCENIUM IS AFFILIATED TO HAC REGISTERED CHARITY - NO 283141

'OEDIPUS REX' by Sophocles

The powerful and tragic struggle of King Oedipus against his destiny. Oedipus arrives and saves the city of Thebes by answering the riddle of the Sphinx. He is made king and marries the widowed queen. His people are smitten by a plague and the tragedy unfolds as he is driven to discover the reason for this devastation.

This is a drama which potentially reverberates in every man. Sophocles' tragedy is revealed through characters and chorus and the Proscenium production will tell the story in speech, dance and song.

BOOKING

Tickets £6 full price and £4 concessions (OAP, Students, UB40 and Groups over 10). Proscenium Box Office 0181 954 7169. Compass Box Office 01895 673200.

ROUTES TO THE COMPASS

By Road

Take A40 and turn off onto B466/A437 (Hillington Circus) towards Ruislip and Ickenham. At first shops turn right into Glebe Avenue. Compass is on left immediately beyond Ickenham Tube.

By Tube

Metropolitan or Piccadilly line to Ickenham Station. Turn right down hill. Compass is 50 metres on left.

By Bus

U1 or 98 to Ickenham Village.

Enjoy a meal before the show!
THE BISTRO

is now serving meals from 6.30pm at every Friday and Saturday Function.

The Compass Arts Theatre is an Arts/Education facility managed in partnership with the London Borough of Hillington.

Proscenium is affiliated to the Harrow Arts Council and is a registered charity - no. 283141.