MAX FRISCH

THE FIRERAIISERS by Max Frisch

" Joking is the third best way of hoodwinking people..... but the best and safest method is totell the plain and unvarnished truth. Oddlyenough no one believes it."In a city grippedby fear of a wave of unsolved arson attacks, two vagabonds set up residence in the attic of Herr Biederman, admitting that previous dwellings have mysteriously burnt to theground. Surely these are not fireraiisers? Surely they can have no incendiary intentions on their good friend the caring, sharing Herr Biedermann....
