About This Production

Well-meaning architect David is forced by town planners to turn an urban development project into a high-rise monstrosity.

Michael Frayn's award-winning, sharply funny play charts the decay of love and friendship and reminds us how often liberal ideals are compromised by economic realities.

About Proscenium

Proscenium was founded in 1924. Since then, our aim has been to present classic and contemporary plays to as wide an audience as possible.
